RECENT DEATHS.

JOSEPH D. MANSFIELD, M.D., M.M.S.S., died in Wakefield May 22, 1907, aged ninety years.

JAMES BRADLEY EVERETT, M.D., M.M.S.S., died in Everett May 20, 1907, aged seventy-eight years.

GEORGE HENRY WATSON, M.D., M.M.S.S., formerly of Bridgewater, died in Flatbush, N. Y., May 26, 1907, aged fifty-nine years.

DR. A. C. BERNAYS died in St. Louis May 22, at the age of fifty-three years. He graduated in medicine at the University of Heidelberg in Germany, and was a fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons of England. He had a large surgical practice in the Southwest.

DR. GUY DAVENPORT LOMBARD, of New York, died on May 22, after a short illness. He was descended from John Lombard, who settled at Springfield, Mass., in 1646, and from Thomas Davenport, who came to this country in 1840, and was born, on Jan. 11, 1872, in Northampton, Mass., where his father, the late Rev. James K. Lombard, was rector of St. John's parish. He was graduated from the medical department of the New York University in 1896, and afterwards served as interne in Bellevue Hospital. Since 1898 he had been instructor in histology in Cornell Medical College, in the laboratory of which he did considerable research work, and for several years he was secretary of the New York State Medical Association.

DR. CHARLES A. FOSTER, one of the medical staff of the Manhattan State Hospital for the Insane, Ward's Island, New York City, died suddenly on May 19, at the age of fifty-eight years. He had long been a resident of Saugerties on the Hudson, and only came to the Manhattan Hospital a few months ago. Dr. Foster was well known as a specialist in psychiatry and a writer on insanity.

DR. RICHARD CALDWELL BREWSTER, of Brooklyn, N. Y., died on May 18, after a long illness. He was born in Goshen, Orange County, N. Y., in 1844. He was first graduated in dentistry, which he practised with success, and in 1890 was graduated from the Long Island College Hospital.

DR. HENRY W. CARPENTER, of Oneida, Madison County, N. Y., died on May 20, at the age of seventy-five years. He was graduated from the medical department of the University of the City of New York in 1858, and was for some time coroner of Madison County. He was also formerly a member of the State Legislature.
